

aggregating 10 years or more. However, the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 202(t)(4) shall not apply to an individual who is a citizen of a foreign country that has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and which satisfies the provisions of subparagraph (A) of section 202(t)(2) but not the provisions of subparagraph (B) of section 202(t)(2).

By virtue of the finding herein, the limitation on payment of monthly benefits to aliens included in section 202(t)(1) does not apply to citizens of St. Vincent and the Grenadines receiving benefits on the earnings records of individuals who have 40 quarters of coverage under Social Security or who have resided in the United States for a period or periods aggregating 10 years or more.

Dated: March 1, 1982.
