Join us for the first ever VAWA Trial Advocacy Training in Tucson, Arizona at the Casino del Sol Conference Center & Resort on the Pascua Yaqui Reservation from May 5-7, 2015.

The Pascua Yaqui Tribe hosts this event in collaboration with the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The Training will focus on three tracks: prosecutor, defense attorney, and judicial. The Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, the Center for Court Innovation, and local judges will provide substantive trial training specific to VAWA prosecutions, including training on jurisdictional considerations, witness recantation, and evidence considerations. Practical training skills and application of learned skills will take place at the Pascua Yaqui Tribal Court.

All are welcome to register for the May 5th General VAWA Session where the Pascua Yaqui Criminal Justice System will share the Lessons Learned in its first year of exercising Special Domestic Violence Criminal Jurisdiction. The general session will also host general VAWA specific training on Criminal Jurisdiction, Evidence, and Ethics by Cohen-handbook contributor Melissa Tatum, renowned evidence & trial litigation expert and best-selling author Thomas Mauet, and Jim Diamond, respectively.

The substantive trial skills training days on May 6-7th will be limited and selected on a first-come, first-serve basis. The PYT Office of the Prosecutor will contact approved participants immediately upon selection.

All who attend the general session on May 5th will need to submit a registration form even if they are not selected to participate in the substantive trial training. There is no registration fee. Selected participants are responsible for their own airfare, accommodations, and meals.

Please note: More events focused on VAWA Training are in the planning process by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of Justice Services. Cost: No Charge for the seminar – sponsored by BIA; a block of rooms is available at the Casino Del Sol Resort in Tucson, Arizona. For registration, please refer to attached Reservation Information Form.

Training Registration Process: All applications must be submitted by April 16, 2015 to Savannah Joe at Savannah.Joe@bia.gov. Participants will be notified by April 17, 2015, regarding their selection.

Lodging Recommendations: Casino Del Sol Resort, 5655 W. Valencia Road, Tucson, Arizona 85757. Telephone 1-855-SOL-STAY (1-855-765-7829). To be ensured a room, an accommodation request must be made with the Casino Del Sol Resort by April 20, 2015. For registration, please refer to attached Reservation Information Form or click here to be directed to hotel training registration website.
