 PATHWAYS INTERNSHIP PROGRAM ***
The Pathways Internship Program is designed to provide seasonal employment and tuition assistance for students who are still in school. Students will begin internship work in summer of 2016 but will be eligible for tuition assistance during the 2015-2016 academic year. Students will receive up to $5,000 in tuition assistance and be provided with summer employment opportunities working for BIA or tribal wildland fire programs. Upon successful completion of the Pathways program, student trainees may be non-competitively placed into career-conditional positions within the BIA. Summer work, locations, and duties vary and are designed to provide hands on experience and training in fire management activities.
