

Evening comes at Hunters Point Library in Arizona.

Hunters Point Library Opens

An 8,000 square foot replacement library/ classroom building opened in August at Hunters Point Boarding School in Arizona.

The new building at the K-5 Hunters Point Boarding School in Arizona will serve 100 students. The project includes the ARRA-funded demolition of a building constructed in 1954 that was used as a library.

Book shelves are ready to get stocked.

The check-out counter will help keep order.
