General Comment

I am of Native American ancestry. I here by petition and seek acknowledgement of my status as such. As the intention of this action is to correct and make transparent the truth of things. To establish justice and insure domestic tranquility.

I am a honorably discharged Veteran of the US Army. My adopted name is John Anthony Votta. If our government of the people for the people can examine its own actions and effect positive action. We will all be able to move forward as a more prosperous nation. Are you able to work honestly for the sake of the future. If so I want help and be your partner. John A. Votta
